This program will feature the This is the best of the 2018 festival's short adventure films - including climbing, biking, skiing, kayaking and running. The five points that shine through in every 5Point Film Festival program are Respect, Commitment, Humility, Balance and Purpose.

“At at 5Point Film Festival show, we laugh, we cry, we cheer, we learn and we explore the world together as a community,” says Meredith McKee, Program Director of 5Point Film Festival. “And that’s the power of a 5Point Community Collab.”

This year’s 5Point Festival theme, “Our Stories, Our Lands” will emphasize the importance and value of public lands through 5Point Film programming.

Feature film programming is as follows:

Grande

(Portugal, 4 min)

Director: Nuno Dias

Producer: Nuno Dias

The winter of 2016/17 a special one in Nazaré, with so many swells and consistent big wave action taking place. Barriers have been broken in so many levels most prominently on the paddling front.

Into Twin Galaxies - Short

(Greenland, 10 min)

Director: Jochen Schmoll

Producer: Niko Jäger

An adventure complete with an insane kayaking mission in Greenland. With kite skis they tow their white water kayaks over 1000 km of the Greenland Ice Cap to reach the most northern river ever paddled.

My Big White Thighs

(United Kingdom, 25 min)

USA PREMIERE

Producer: Hannah Maia

Director: Hannah Maia

A story about womanhood, miscarriage, healing, loving your own skin & freezing your bum off in cold water.

Epilepsy Can't Stop This Runner

(Ireland, 3 min)

Senior Producer: Connor Boals

Producer: Austin Brown

Katie Cooke is a young competitive runner from Dublin. Due to an aggressive form of epilepsy, she experiences up to 14 seizures a day. Despite her condition, Cooke hasn't let anything stand in the way of her love for running.

Kodak Courage

(USA, 15 min)

Director: Sam Giffin

Producer: Sam Giffin

Filmed on Public Lands

Film and Photography is a double edged sword for skiers and snowboarders. It pushes athletes to do crazy stunts they never would have tried and it can make their wildest dreams come true. This film follows the story of two brothers, and their lifelong conflict about risk versus reward.

Tailwhip

(USA, 13 min)

Director: Joris Debeij, Michael Spencer Smith

Producer: Uninterrupted

The 14-year-old BMX rider Erik Aguilar is on track to reaching professional status in just a couple years, but in the meantime, he uses biking to keep himself out of trouble and off the streets.

Break on Through

(France + Spain, 25 min)

Director: Matty Hong, Peter Mortimer, Nick Rosen

Producer: Zachary Barr

In high-end modern rock climbing, 5.15 is the top of the difficulty scale, a grade achieved by only a few men and never by a woman. Margo Hayes is determined to change that.

The Frenchy

(USA, 14 min)

Director: Michelle Smith

Producer: Michelle Smith

Filmed on Public Lands

Jacques "The Frenchy" Houot is a Colorado icon. He is an 82-year-old badass athlete who gets after it non-stop on skis, mountain bike, and the cyclocross race circuit. He inspires us with his contagious love of life, epic tales of survival, ability to counter aging through laughter, and his impact on the community over decades.

Day Dream

(USA, 5 min)

WORLD PREMIERE

Director + Producer: Skip Armstrong

Sequels can be hard to pull off, unless you're Theo - the former newbie kayaker from DREAM. Turns out he got good at kayaking, like the best. And then moved to the big city and got into yoga. Really into yoga. With his practice getting better he wonders, is this it? Supported by NRS.

Cowtown

(USA, 10 min)

Director: Clint Caluory

Producer: Greg Kohs

Through three generations, the Harris family made Cowtown Rodeo the longest running weekly rodeo in the United States, just seven miles off the New Jersey turnpike, bringing new fans to the sport since 1929.

DreamRide 3

(New Zealand + Canada, 5 min)

Director: Mike Hopkins

Producer: Mike Hopkins

Step into a world built on imagination and trails that can only exist in one's dreams. Combining a Dr. Seuss inspired narrative, some of the world's wildest natural oddities, and one dreamer on a mountain bike, this film will take you on an adventure like no other.
